Understanding Life And Death

Truth, true life, can only come to you through Jesus.

John 15:5
I am the vine, ye are the branches: He that abideth in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit: for without me ye can do nothing.
(See Also; John 5:19, John 9:33, Php 4:13)

All souls have only the "want", to serve God, through Christ, which is life.

Col 1:26
Even the mystery which hath been hid from ages and from generations, but now is made manifest to his saints: (See Also; Rom 16:25-26, 1Co 2:7, Eph 3:3-10)

The mystery of death;

Death is a manifestation from the flesh-self-mind.
Death is in the mind-self, which is not living life in goodness-love. A freewill choice. (Not the "inner" perfectly created-soul. Eph 3:16)
Physical death of the body is meaningless. Life progresses on from the spirit-soul, life to life, unto eternity. Always in freewill, choosing how much heaven-hell is within.

Mat 28:20

Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and, lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world. Amen. (See Also; John 14:20)

Christ be with you always. Death is only in the mind. Belief that a soul is in danger, is not having the understanding of the mystery.

2Co 4:10-11
Always bearing about in the body the dying of the Lord Jesus, that the life also of Jesus might be made manifest in our body. For we which live are alway delivered unto death for Jesus' sake, that the life also of Jesus might be made manifest in our mortal flesh.

With Jesus now being within the flesh-mind, the flesh-body can make manifest, living life as Jesus lived and taught humankind. To be Christ-like. Faith is a moral conviction, reliance upon Christ, living in truth, life, not death.
